AN ART MAGAZINE FUNDAMENTALLY AMERICAN

Alfred Stevens, the great Belgian painter, once declared "Old Europe will some time accept an artistic renaissance from Young America." That Europe should be the first to recognize American genius is not surprising when we realize that prior to the publication of the new ARTS & DECORATION—there was no magazine incorporating as a fundamental part of its contents a record of the wonderful work being done by our men and women in the field of art.

Lives in the Spirit of Today

So alive is American Art—so varied is its expression and so vitally important is it to all of us—that we cannot afford to be without a journal that shall record the essential utility of art—especially native American art—as well as reflecting its romance, poetry and drama.

Art Around the World

While recognizing and proclaiming the vision and power of American art, proper measure of appreciation and attention is given in the new ARTS & DECORATION to contemporary European and Oriental art.

All the Arts

No division of the arts—Fine, Decorative, Applied, Industrial,—which is not represented in the new ARTS & DECORATION. Here you will find the current important happenings in the field of Painting, Sculpture, Architecture, Interior Decoration, Home Planning, Music, Drama, Poetry, Classic Dancing, Poetry chronicled in an authoritative and at the same time delightful manner.

Every American should read the one and only magazine which is recording the achievements of American art and of American artists.

Send $1.00 for the next three issues including the Christmas number of ARTS & DECORATION.

Art in the Home

The refining influence of an art publication is enjoyed by thousands who read

The International Studio

The coming year will find it upon the library table of hundreds of new homes and enjoyed by hundreds of new readers. They will give it a monthly welcome and anticipate its coming as they would an old friend too good to lose.

We want every art lover in America to view its exceptionally beautiful pages, replete with color plates and half-tone reproductions of the masterpieces of art both ancient and modern; to read the contributions on art from the best of recognized sources, and finally, to learn through it the proper valuation of art.

To make this possible we make the
